

Helen Galnick

Helen Galnick passed away this past Wednesday, in her sleep. She was a wonderful lady who had many friends and always enjoyed them all.

We started our Monday morning face-to-face bridge games 13 years ago, and had over 125 or more come to play bridge, eat breakfast, and enjoy of exchanging good wishes and seeing good friends. Always enjoying the company of other people, and always willing to contribute, Helen was one of the first people to show up and help put out the boards, the bidding boxes, the pencils and whatever. We all enjoyed talking with her before the game started.

Helen had a graciousness about herself, but to simply say that Helen was an elegant lady does not do her justice: She always dressed to the hilt and looked classy and lovely in her many elegant outfits.

Helen loved playing bridge! She played an exceptionally good game and amassed more than 1,000 master points and enjoyed having won every one of them.

Helen will be missed by all who were lucky enough to know her.
